Winners are grinner: It's celebration time for three winning sides in ICC tournaments in 2005. Scotland (top) celebrate success in the ICC Trophy in Ireland last July; Papua New Guinea (bottom left) are all smiles after winning the ICC World Cup Qualifying Series Division Two event in Malaysia in February; and Ireland are victorious in the ICC Intercontinental Cup in Namibia in October.

On the up: Cricket is enjoying a surge in popularity in Uganda with more than 25,000 involved in the game and these three scenes reflect that. Clockwise from left, a landmark reached at the ICC Trophy; coaching from South Africa fast bowler Makhaya Ntini; and grassroots fun and games.

Test Match Special: A passion for playing the game will always overcome a lack of facilities, as this photograph from Africa demonstrates. It may be a long way from the manicured green grass of Lord's or Newlands but, for these players, it is the centre of their cricketing universe.
